- The instrument may be returned and this agreement cancelled so long as rental installments are current. Renter is responsible for returning the instrument to Music Showcase. Do not leave the instrument at school or with a band director or a Music Showcase representative without proper advance authorization from Music Showcase. Renter acknowledges that he/she is totally responsible for the condition of the instrument and agrees to pay for any damage beyond normal wear, tear, and depreciation. All original accessories such as mouthpieces, drumpads, sticks, stands, bows, etc. must be returned with the instrument or the renter must purchase new accessories.

Should the Renter default on any two consecutive monthly payments, Music Showcase may charge the full price of the instrument (less rental fees paid) to his/her valid credit card (Mastercard, Visa, American Express, or Discover), or may take possession of the instrument with or without legal process on or off school premises, wherever found. Should Music Showcase execute the latter option, past due rental fees may be charged to Renter's valid credit card or his/her account may be turned over to collections. Renter agrees to be responsible for the payment of costs and attorney fees incurred by Music Showcase in seeking instrument possession.
- Music Showcase has the right to terminate this contract at any time.
- All RENTAL FEES are non-refundable and non-transferrable and a portion is only transferable if the contract stays active and instruments are exchanged consecutively during that period. In the event the file is forced to collections, the original DEPOSIT becomes non-refundable as well.

REPAIR & REPLACEMENT AGREEMENT (R&R)

R&R covers repair on instruments to keep the instrument in proper playing condition; however, it does not include the replacement of missing parts (posts, crowns, barrels, etc.), mouthpieces, reeds, ligatures, caps, oils, cleaning materials, neck straps, strings, rosin, drum sticks, drum heads and practice pads. It does NOT cover malicious damage or broken body section. (Labor costs to transfer keys is covered but the price of the body section is NOT COVERED.)
